10. Deputy Chief, FDD, spoke on FDD operations at the Clandestine Services Review Course No. 6 on 1 July.

11. A proposed program for the development of Intelligence Officer-linguists in the Agency, drawn up after consultation with personnel of Staff D, SR, and Language Training Division, OTR, was submitted to OO for approval.

OPERATIONS

1. The 52nd meeting of the Subcommittee on Exploitation of Foreign Language Publications was held on 8 July. Discussions designed to pinpoint those additional subjects which cannot now be covered because of manpower limitations were initiated.

2. As a result of a conference last month, efforts of Reproduction Division, LO, to make up the extensive backlog of scheduled reports and to achieve a current production status for this material appeared to have been successful as the month ended. The backlog of 38 scheduled reports as of 1 July was reduced to one; in addition, 20 current scheduled reports were completed.

3. During the two-month period, June-July, reference to the CTS index prevented 93 cases of duplication totaling 2,577 pages. Estimating $4.00 per page for translation, this represents a saving of about $10,000.

4. The first issue of a new scheduled report was published during the month:

"Information on Communist and Non-Communist Labor Union Cooperation in France and Italy" (OO-W) -- Bimonthly

5. The "Russian-English Glossary of Metallurgical and Metal-working Terms" prepared by FDD was published under [REDACTED] imprint during the month.

6. Further efforts are being made to find a sponsor to publish the translation of the USSR Academy of Sciences textbook "Political Economy" prepared by FDD. The matter is now in the hands of Contact Division.

7. On 1 July the Division completed Project [REDACTED] which had been started in November 1954 for FI/DD/P. The project required [REDACTED] man-hours not counting the time of [REDACTED] who was on full-time loan from FI Staff. [REDACTED] foreign-language pages were processed and [REDACTED] English-language pages were produced.
